Thank you for expressing an interest in the Vietnam Veterans Association of Australia WA Branch (VVAA). A brief outline of the Association follows. Should you wish to join us there is an application form overleaf.

HISTORY

A short history of the VVAA can be found on the national website at www.vvaa.org.au/history.htm

WA Branch

The home of the VVAA in WA is ANZAC Cottage, the 'House that was built in a day' by the community of Mt Hawthorn, and gifted to Pte Porter, a wounded Gallipoli veteran of the 11th Battalion.

The branch is managed by a Committee which meets at Anzac Cottage monthly. General meetings are held quarterly, usually at a more social venue so that members can enjoy fellowship after the meeting.

Anzac Cottage is only open on special occasions, such as Anzac Day, on the Sunday prior to Vietnam veterans Day, during Museum Week, etc.

A branch newsletter is published and sent to all members quarterly and includes details of coming events, and items of interest to veterans. The VVAA national magazine is also sent to financial members. Current news is also available on our website at www.vvaawa.org.au

Membership

Membership of the Branch is open to Vietnam Veterans and their descendants. Where the veteran's service is listed on the Nominal Roll of Vietnam Veterans maintained by the department of veterans Affairs (www.vietnamroll.gov.au), this will be sufficient evidence of a veteran's eligibility, otherwise evidence must be supplied with the application for membership.

Where the application is from the descendant of a veteran, evidence of both the veteran's eligibility and the relationship of the descendant to the veteran must be provided with the application.
